

Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation Department Youth Sports "Play Up" Release of Liability and Assumption of Risk

Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation Department Youth Sports Leagues comprise various age divisions, in which players of similar ages, developmental levels and overall skill sets are grouped together to form teams and leagues. The primary concept is to create a safe, fun recreational experience, in which uniformity and consistency contribute to the overall best possible learning environment, thus fostering skill development. Participants registering in Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation Department Youth Sports Programs are strongly recommended to register within their corresponding age group according to their chronological age as determined by the "cut off" date. Before requesting for your child to "play up", we urge you to deeply consider your child's maturity, size, coordination, muscular development, attitude and social development levels in comparison with children in the age division you are considering asking your child to participate with. The request to allow the child to "play up" an age division directly conflicts with the recommendation put forth by the County, its professional staff and several other reputable professional organizations/agencies. By "playing up" your child will be participating with older children, who are typically larger or more physically developed, more mature and in most cases more aggressive.
